Subject Pronouns

In Spanish, sentences often start with a subject pronoun. Subject pronouns are used to tell who is doing the action in a sentence.

Subject pronouns	English translation
Yo	I
Tú	You (familiar)
Usted	You (formal)
Él	He
Ella	She
Nosotros	We (masculine) (Used if there is one or males in a group)
Nosotras	We (feminine) (Used if there are only females in a group)
Ustedes	You (pl) (You guys)
Ellos	They (masculine) (at least one male in group)
Ellas	They (feminine) (only females)

Abbreviations

Sometimes usted and ustedes are abbreviated.

Usted → Ud.

Ustedes → Uds.
